Exhibit Opening Generating the Divine Within

Victoria artist, Mike Routliffe, has aspired to delve into the power and force found within communication. His new exhibit at the Maritime Museum of BC showcases the art of photo-manipulation in a visual feast of abnormal visions, abstractions and shadows. He visits the void where images begin to form and where the creator-viewer brings them to cohesion.

Join the MMBC in a special opening of the exhibit Entheogenica – Generating the Divine Within on Saturday, February 26th from 2:00 – 4:00pm. The opening, held in the Museum's Special Exhibits area is free to the public. We welcome you to speak with the artist, enjoy light refreshments and interpret the works for yourself. To visit the rest of the Museum, admission is required.
