The Maritime Museum of BC is seeking a recent graduate for an internship position to work in public engagement with all members of the Museum team. The Museum's mission is to promote and preserve our maritime experience and heritage and to engage people with this ongoing story. The Museum collection represents a rich link to the province's nautical and industrial roots. The Museum cares for over 35,000 unique artifacts, in excess of 40,000 historical photographs, a collection of 35,000 ships' plans, and an internationally recognized chart collection. As well, the Museum also runs popular outreach programs featuring such topics as WWII and Women on the Home Front, Pirates, HBC and Fort Victoria, Early Explorers to the West Coast, Immigration, Navigation, Ocean Conservation, and shipwrecks.

The Public Engagement Intern will interact on a regular basis with visitors and school groups on behalf of the Museum. The successful candidate will develop and deliver high-quality museum programs and tours to a wide variety of audiences, including children, adults, and seniors. Objectives include delivering current programs and tours; researching and developing new program initiatives; assisting with marketing strategies including maintaining key relationships around town and posting regularly to social media; and assisting with front-desk visitor engagement. By producing new programs and other public engagement initiatives, the successful candidate will leave a legacy for the future of the Maritime Museum of BC community and educational engagement.
