

Objects No. 1 & 2 Iron Parrels

A Parrel is a fitting which held a yard to the mast. It allowed the yard to rotate and tilt to trim sails to the wind.

Object No.3 Iron Deck Knee

Knees were heavy right angle shaped pieces of iron or wood. They were used to reinforce deck beams at the hull to stop the wooden beams from bending or shifting.

